

2012 Florida NAAE/Mosaic CASE Institute
Scholarship Application Form
(CASE Institute details may be found at <http://www.case4learning.org>)

As a special project of the National FFA Foundation, Mosaic is sponsoring scholarships for the 2012 CASE Institutes (CI) for beginning and experienced agricultural teachers who teach in Florida.

Scholarship Program Guidelines and Information

1. To be eligible for these scholarships, each applicant must be:
 - a. an agriculture teacher in Florida who is employed to teach at least one CASE course in a Florida public school in the fall of 2012 OR actively seeking employment as an agriculture teacher beginning in the summer or fall of 2012 in a Florida public school where CASE courses will be taught; and
 - b. an active member (or student member) of NAAE during the 2011-12 membership year (July 1, 2011 - June 30, 2012) and an active member of NAAE during the 2012-13 membership year (July 1, 2012 - June 30, 2013).
2. Each applicant must prepare an application and supporting documents and submit the complete package electronically to MChaplin.NAAE@uky.edu. The original deadline was May 15, 2012, however scholarships will be awarded after review of qualifications until all available scholarships have been awarded. (It is preferred that the complete package be submitted as one PDF file.)
3. The scholarship applications will be evaluated by NAAE. Those applicants selected to receive scholarships will be notified; unsuccessful applicants will also be notified.
4. Applicants will be selected to receive a scholarship to participate in the CASE Institute (or Field Test Institute) for one of the following: 1) Introduction to Agriculture, Food, and Natural Resources; 2) Principles of Agricultural Science - Animal; 3) Principles of Agricultural Science - Plant, or 4) Animal and Plant Biotechnology Field Test. Dates and locations for these opportunities are on the CASE website at <http://www.case4learning.org> and on the application form. Every effort will be made to place applicants in the CASE Institute they prefer to attend; however, first choice may not be available depending on the registration in the CASE Institutes. For Florida teachers, the scholarship includes all costs for participating in the CASE Institute (including lodging and most meals) plus up to $500 for travel. The value of the scholarship is approximately $3,000.
5. Questions may be directed to the NAAE office by sending e-mail to MChaplin.NAAE@uky.edu or by calling (859) 257-2224 or (800) 509-0204.
6. Each application package submitted must include the following:
 - a. completed "2012 Florida NAAE/Mosaic CASE Institute Scholarship Application Form;"
 - b. applicant's resume detailing career history (if beginning teacher applicant, be sure to include progress toward securing an agricultural teaching position where CASE courses will be taught), leadership and service activities [criterion weight: 30 points];
 - c. essay (no more than 400 words) detailing applicant's interest in inquiry-based teaching/learning and applicant's desire to participate in the professional development for the CASE initiative [criterion weight: 30 points];
 - d. letter of support from the applicant's administrator (superintendent, principal, CTE director) indicating the school's commitment to the CASE initiative [criterion weight: 5 points];
 - e. letter of support from someone other than an administrator, such as a local ag industry leader, advisory council member, or parent of a currently enrolled student indicating the commitment to the CASE initiative [criterion weight: 5 points];
 - f. completed CASE School District Agreement (available at: <http://www.case4learning.org/component/content/article/9/67-case-institute-registration.html>), and
 - g. if beginning teacher, a copy of the applicant's unofficial college/university transcripts from all colleges/universities attended including undergraduate and graduate course work (we understand that spring 2012 grades may not be available

Completed applications must be sent to MChaplin.NAAE@uky.edu.
